CRACK REGIMENT'S RIFLEMEN BEAT SEVENTY-FIRST.

Hard Fight in State Match at Creedmoor, With Teams Tied in the Skirmish Run -The Seventh Scores Its Third Victory by Fine Work at the Long Range.

team matches of the State meet by defeating their old opponents of the Seventy-first to-day in the big State match. It was almost as hard won a victory as the win by a point in the brigade match on Thursday, for the ternated in the lead and the Seventh the match was marked by a remarkable coincidence, as the Seventh and Seventy-first, the leading teams at the end of the long range firing, tied in their skirmish runs, each team rolling up 686 points in their assault on the black silhouette figures. Capt. McLean's men, however, had outshot the Seventy-first cracks at the 1,090 yards, cutting down a big lead to a lead of seven points for their own team, and this scant margin decided the

The Twelfth made a desperate attempt t win out on their skirmish but failed to equal the runs of the leaders and had to be content with third place. The Seventy-fourth of Buffalo, the second tea m in last year's match was not formidable at any stage and fin ished in fifth place.

The Seventh celebrated its victory in vociferous fashion and kept an open clubhouse for the remainder of the afternoon. The best of feeling reigned between the leaders. and cheers for each other were freely exchanged. By winning the brigade, Major-Generals and the State matches the Seventh scored a sensational finish.

The team had not shown up strongly in the association meet and it looked as though the Seventy-first would capture the lion's share of the State matches. The other victories of the meet were that of Headquarters of the Seventy-first in the Adjutant-General's match yesterday by 3 points over the Flushing match yesterday by 3 points over the Flushing company; the Seventh, however, scoring a third with Company H's team; and the Governor's match, an individual skirmish event. This match was won by Sergt. Z. V. Dixon of core of 100 points. The skirmishing in the Governor's match with its 108 competitors, was far more brilliant than that of to-day's Governor's match with its 108 competitors, was far more brilliant than that of to-day's match as the leading ten men in the Governor's match scored $2 or over.

Much of the Seventh's return to form was due to the coaching of Sergt. Robinson and the shaking down into a strong team of the somewhat disorganised teams that were patched up for the Association matches. The members of the English team showed up strongly in the State matches, and their return was most opportune.

The State match, modeled on the last two days events of the national match, calls for seven shots at $60 and 1,000 yards and one skirmish run. Creedmoor has justly earned the reputation of being the most difficult range in the East to shoot on, ewing to its peculiar topography and many cross currents, and it lived well up to its reputation to-day. There was no complaint made on the score of ammunition, as in the Adjutant General's match, where the Government cannelure issue of 1903 was used with disastrous results. The varying force of the wind, however, which came in briskly from the rear, kept the scores down, as many hits were lost through the consequent changes of elevation at the long ranges.

At the 800 yards stage the Beveaty-first led the field with a score of 355 out of a possible 420, but the Twelfth was close up with 354 after a sensational finish. The Twelfth's team was running close to the time limit and the last pair, Smith and Dardingkiller, found themselves with but five and a hair minutes in which to shoot fourteen record shots. Their abooting resembled rapid fire in their attempt to finish without a penality and they scored 62 out of a possible 70. The third team at this range was the Twentythird, with 240, and the Seventh followed with showed the Seventh won its match. With Seventh and Seventy-first were announced at the same time, and the old shots were unable to recall a former instance of a skirmish tie on the Creedmoor range. The probability that the Twelfth might make a run total that would overcome the lead of 18 points on the part of the Seventh was soon dissipated, as the run made was 538.

GARDNER KNOCKS OUT TURNER. Rattling Lightweight Contest Results in

Jimmy Gardner of Lowell, brother of George ver, colored; in a slashing twenty round bout at Colma, Cal., before the Colma A. C. on Friday night. Gardner did the trick in eleven rounds and demonstrated by his success that he is a worthy candidate for lightweight honors. It was Gardner's fight from the very outset. He bored in from the start and simply wore his rival down with body blows and stiff cross counters. The finish came in the first five seconds of the eleventh round, when a class rich arms. when a clean right arm blow to the body round, but after that he had things practically his own way. He drew blood freely from the negro in the fourth round and had his man groggy at the end of the round. Gardner displayed great oleverness swings and his ability to avoid his man elicited lowed a chance to score to escape him. His best punch was a left hand blow to the body. In the clinches Gardner also had the advantage, delivering a tattoo on Turner's body and frequently clipping him with a left hand joit as they parted.

By the ninth round Turner was practically all in. In the tenth, however, Turner made a desperate rally. In this round he landed two or three punishing blows on the head, but then Gardner came back and hammered him without stint. The gong saved Turner in the tenth. He took the count from a left hand blow to the mouth. He was on the floor eight seconds and came up groggy, only to be floored again with a stif left hand body punch. Turner seemed to be much refreshed in the eleventh, but when flardner got to him it was all day with him. The men fought so desperately at times that they did not hear the gong.

CLOSE RACE OF 30-FOOTERS.

NAUTILUS, SAILED BY ADDISON HANAN, WINS ON THE SOUND.

Defeats Cara Mia in American Yacht Club Regatta by Two Seconds-Thirty-six Yachts Start and Sall in a Moderate Wind-Howdy Beats the Raccabouts.

Thirty-six boats started in the midsummer regatta of the American Yacht Club. Condering the fact that many boats are being prepared for the annual cruise of the New York Yacht Club this is a good showing. New York Yacut Gibs in a good showing.
The yachts raced over triangular courses on the Sound, starting off the Scotch Caps off the chibhouse at Milton Point. The wind at the start was light from the southwest and it freshened as the race progressed. The course laid out by the regatta committee made it a beat to the first mark at Execution Reef, then it was a reach to the second mark off Prospect Point, and the third leg was a run with spinnakers to the finish. In the 33-foot class the Mimosa III. and the Nike, old time rivals, met again. The Mimosa III: took the lead at the start and held it all round the course, winning the race by 6 minutes 16 seconds.

Ten of the New York Yacht Club 80 footers started. The Alera, Ibis, Atair, Maid of Mendon led in the order named at the start, but before the yachts had gone far the contest became a close one between Cara Mia, Nautilus, Ibis and Atair. The Nautilus, sailed by Addison G. Hanan, gradually worked her way to the front, doing her best work on the windward leg and then keeping the lead, won by two seconds. It was the closest race of the season and was full of excitement from start to finish. The Cara Mia was seco 34 seconds in front of the Ibis, and the Atair was fourth, beaten by the Ibis 1 minute 3 seconds. Between the first and the last boat in this class there was only 4 minutes 51

Eleven yachts started in the rac class and the Howdy won. She beat the Pretty Quick 1 minute 24 seconds and the Jolly Roger 3 minutes 53 seconds. The Busy Bee was the last in this class. In the 27 foot

Bee was the last in this class. In the 27 foot class there were three starters, and H. E. Sayre's Maryola won. She beat the Rascal i minute 29 seconds, and the Spinster 2 minutes 25 seconds.

There were five starters in the 22 foot class. The Answer, owned by Donald B. Abbott, won, beating the Opossum, owned by T. M. Raborg, by 24 seconds, the Kenoshi by 4 minutes 20 seconds, the Skip by 9 minutes 53 seconds, and the Okee by 21 minutes 53 seconds.

In the 18 foot class the Ace beat the Hamburg by 2 minutes 34 seconds. Three of the Larchmont 21 footers started. The Dorothy beat the Vaquero by 1 minutes 15 seconds. The summary: SLOOPS STOOT CLASS STANT, 12:15 COURSE, 18% MILES.

Jennie Scott Wins by Small Margin-The Friend Again Wins.

READVILLE, Aug. 5 .- Although there were not 500 people present to witness it, the 2:18 trot held here this afternoon was one of the best races ever held in Massachusetts. Of the eight horses that started in the three in each that the judges had great difficulty in placing them correctly. Jennie Scott managed to win all three heats, but by the smallest possible margin.

The Friend continued his string of victories by taking the 2:10 pace in fast time, although the black seemed to be only logging around the track. The 2:20 pace was easy in straight heats for Stiletto.

What's Going On in Automobile Circles. What's Geing On in Automobile Circles, C. N. Tangeman, member of the firm representing the Flat automobile in this country, has just returned from a visit to the factory at Turin, Italy, the witnessed the Mount Cenis hill climb and considers that course much more dangerous and difficult than that over which this year's Bennett race was decided. The first and second prizes were captured by Cagno and Nazzari in Flats. The event was witnessed by the Queen Mother Margherita at a point known as the Steeps the most dangerous on the course. A special booth was erected there for her use, she driving there in her ow? automobile, which is a red, white and green Flat.

Automobiles are slowly pushing their way into use for the transportation of the traveling salesman, and very appropriately the automobile mannifacturers are themselves blazing the way in this transition. D. W. Henry, salesman of the Electric Vehicle Company of Hartford, is visiting the trade between New York and Chicago, touring from place to place in a 40 horse-power Columbia car. Mr. Henry is accompanied by F. L. Lescault, one of the company's mechanical experts, and is explaining and demonstrating the good points of the Columbia all along the line.

E. R. Hotlander is back from Marblebead, where he has been campaigning with the motor boat Spaghetti. This craft has a 24 horse-power Flat motor and won every event in her class. Harry S. Houpt is summering at Deal Beach, near Asbury Park, having taken a cottage for himself and family. His many business ventures make it necessary to be close to town. He disposed of the last of his Thomas cars last week, winding up a tremendous season in the sale of automobiles.

C. R. Rice is having built at the Baker factory, in Cleveland, a special electric vehicle for the use of Deputy Chief Binns. It will be slightly shorter than the regular Baker surroy, and have a bevel gear drive. It will be able to make thirty miles an hour.

A great majority of the imported cars and of the American cars are being fitted up with the Hartford suspensions, and the improvements noticed in the wearing qualities of tires and springs are credited to their use.
